New York Community Bank’s Roslyn Savings Bank Division
Signs On As Presenting Sponsor for 10th Annual Walk For Alzheimer’s and Mexican Fiesta

Bay Shore, June 26, 2013 — Virginia Belling, Senior Vice President and Retail Banking Regional Executive for New York Community Bank’s Roslyn Savings Bank Division, announced today that, for the fourth year in a row, the bank will make a donation in the amount of $15,000 to Alzheimer Disease Resource Center’s WALK for Alzheimer’s.

This year, the bank will host an Alzheimer’s month during the month of August to raise $15,000 for the sponsorship for the 10th Annual Old Bethpage WALK & Mexican Fiesta, which will take place on September 7th at Old Bethpage Restoration Village. Once again, members of NYCB’s Roslyn Savings Bank division will take part in the WALK. The team raised $5,000 during last year’s WALK on top of the donation made by the bank.

“My dad had Alzheimer’s disease, so I know firsthand the challenges Long Island families face caring for a loved one with Alzheimer’s disease,” explained Ms. Belling. “On behalf of New York Community Bank, I would like to thank our branch staff for helping to raise money and awareness for this disease.”

“It is our pleasure to once again collaborate with New York Community Bank and its Roslyn Savings Bank Division,” said Mary Ann Malack-Ragona, Executive Director/Chief Executive Officer, Alzheimer’s Disease Resource Center, Inc. “Our organizations share a common belief: that by supporting the local community, we can make a difference in the lives of fellow Long Islanders. As the first Corporate Presenting Sponsor for the WALK for Alzheimer’s on Long Island, New York Community Bank is kick-starting what will prove to be an amazing event.”
