

Senator Phil Boyle invites you to a Caregivers Workshop

Thursday, June 21, 2018
11:00 AM - 1:00 PM

Suffolk County Community College
Michael J. Grant Campus
Crooked Hill Rd., Brentwood

Speakers:

Mary Ann Malack-Ragona, CEO for the Alzheimer's Disease Resource Center – Resources for the Caregiver

Officer Bryan T. Stoothoff, Suffolk County Sheriff's Office – Project Lifesaver – A Program That Is Saving Lives for Those At Risk

Linda Cody, Village Walk at Patchogue – What You Can Expect from Assisted Living

Maggie Gonzalez, Aetna Better Health – How Community Medicaid Can Assist with Long Term Care

Aaron Futterman, Esq. – Futterman & Lanza – Important Information About Legal and Financial Issues Surrounding a Long Term Illness

Brian Hessel – The Role of Long Term Care Insurance in the Financial Planning Process

If you are a Caregiver, or about to become a Caregiver, you don't want to miss this important workshop. Experts will discuss:

- Alzheimer's or a Related Dementia
- Resources Available to Caregivers
- Medicare, Medicaid, and VA Benefits
- Medicaid Funded Assisted Living
- Project Lifesaver
- Legal and Financial Issues
- Long Term Care Insurance

So, join us – bring your questions – our panel will have the answers!

New York State Senator
Phil Boyle

philboyleNY
 @PhilBoyleNY

